Product | Bakuchiol Desert Cactus Serum

Skin Edit | Combo, Dry, Sun Damaged

Harness the protective powers of Desert Cacti with this adaptive organic serum containing the natural retinol alternative, Bakuchiol. Harvested from the deserts of North America, these plants have adaptive means of protection from the intense dry heat, UV radiation, and the damage that often comes with it. This blend of botanical protective proteins helps shield skin from the ravages of the environment while Bakuchiol gently stimulates regeneration of tissue so fresh glowing skin can be revealed. This serum is perfect for sensitive skin that needs a restorative boost with a quench from Organic Aloe and Glycerin.

Directions | Apply a thin layer to clean skin.
